WHAT IS AS_TIDE

AS_TIDE NETWORKS is a project that aims at constituting a European network of cultural centers and operators dedicated to intercultural dialogue and socio-economical development, to analyze and promote the sense of collective identity through different cultures in Europe.

In this context, and in a vision enlarged also out of Europe borders, art, and its universality, becomes the tool, the language, the mediator, the source of highly innovative approaches and processes to the social transformation. Art can be viewed not only as self-expression of the artist as an absolute but in a plurality of pronunciations about imposed visions of the world, the society and the history. In fact, a certain degree of freedom and an innovative creative approach "by profession" allow the artists to play a new kind of role in the social fabric and in the society they live in, the one of catalysers and facilitators of social transformation with an etherodox approach to art.
